

Refund Policy for Warrior Training Merchandise

Please read carefully — this policy applies to everyone, every time, with no exceptions.

Refund Policy for Merchandise

We have a 30-day refund and return policy for all merchandise. This means you have 30 days from the date you receive your item to request a refund or return. Claims submitted after 30 days cannot be processed. Refunds and returns are only accepted for damaged or faulty items. Please note that we do not provide refunds or returns for a change of mind.

Please inspect your order promptly upon receipt and contact us immediately if the item is damaged, defective, or if you receive the wrong item, so we can address the issue and make it right.

Please note that we do not accept returns or offer refunds for a change of mind, including requests to return items for a different size or color. Accurate sizing charts for each product are provided on the website. Please refer to these sizing charts to choose the correct size before placing your order.

What if my product is damaged in the mail?

What do I do with a damaged item?

Please keep all damaged items. Items sent back to us will not be accepted. After you receive a refund or replacement, you may choose to donate the damaged item to charity, upcycle it (for an art project, chores, or sleeping), or simply recycle it.
